The Details

Grannie's Bake-Off invites amateur and professional bakers to compete in baking and decorating contests, with a panel of judges deciding for amateur categories and members of the public judging professional categories. The competition is expected to include approximately 40 local businesses, and over 300 members from the public.

The judges for the amateur categories include a number of individuals known for their knowledge of food and pastry: William Dowd is the editor and publisher of Dowd's Guides, a portfolio of websites and blogs dealing with food, drink, and destinations; Ruth Fantasia is a food and features editor at the Times Union; Christian Noe is the chef and owner of Nighthawk's Kitchen in Troy, and winner of the Mac and Cheese Bowl; and Ric Orlando, owner and chef of New World Home Cooking Cafe and New World Catering in Woodstock, Chef at New World Bistro Bar in Albany, and 2010 Food Network CHOPPED Champion.

Grannie's Bake-Off will take place on April 22, 2012, from 11:00 am to 3:00 pm, at the Hilton Garden Inn in Troy, NY. All proceeds will be donated to the National Committee of Grandparents for Children's Rights, which provides a myriad of services for grandparents raising grandchildren in the Capital District and nationwide.

The National Committee of Grandparents for Children's Right is a registered 501(c)(3) non-profit. We provide education and support, advocacy, and thought leadership for children, grandparents, and kinship families. In the Capital District, we offer support groups, some case management, and a grandparent leadership initiative.
